TRAINING TO REPRESENTATIVES OF PANCHAYATI RAJ INSTITUTIONS FOR RURAL DEVELOPMENT
Dhanaraju Dr. K.

Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a)Whether the Government has set up any institute for imparting training in the field of rural development to elected representatives of Panchayati Raj institutions ;

(b) If so, the details of such institutions set up in each State along with their locations; and

(c) The number of people imparted training in these institutions during each of the last three years and thereafter, State-wise ?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI CHANDRA SEKHAR SAHU)

(a) & (b) The State Institutes of Rural Development (SIRDs) and Extension Training Centres (ETCs) are State level Institutes for imparting training in the field of rural development to rural development functionaries and elected representatives of Panchayati Raj Institutions at State level and at District/ Block level respectively. The Ministry of Rural Development supports the training activities of the States including training to elected representatives of Panchayati Raj Institutions for effective implementation of Rural Development programmes by providing financial support to SIRDs and ETCs. There are 28 SIRDs, one in each State and 89 ETCs all over the country. The list of SIRDs along with their location is at Annexure − I and the list of ETCs along with their location is at Annexure − II.

(c)The information is being collected and will be placed on the Table of the House.

Annexure I referred to in reply to Part (a) & (b) of Unstarred Question No. 3451 to be answered on 15.12.2006.
